

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY

The Defense Set Up by Gerry Agents Becker and Finn.

A General Denial Entered by Them to Sophie Martens's Charges.

Finn Says Mrs. Martens Told Him She Paid the Police.

The trial of Edward Becker and William A. Finn, the jury agents who were charged with compounding a misdemeanor in accepting $500 from Mrs. Sophie Martens, whom they had arrested for keeping an alleged disorderly house at 80 Allen street, was resumed today before Judge Fitzgerald in Part II, Court of General Sessions.

The prosecution has presented the evidence of the woman that Finn told her to meet them at Twenty-fourth street and second avenue the night of April 28, with $500, and that she handed the money to Becker.

Capt. Cross, of the Eldridge street police station, has testified that the woman came to him and told him that the Gerry agents demanded $500 to "get her off light" and that he marked the money and made all the arrangements to capture the men when they received it. His wife testified that the woman came to her and told her that the Gerry agents demanded $500 to "get her off light" and that he marked the money and made all the arrangements to capture the men when they received it.

Lawyer Jerome, counsel for the accused men, in his opening address, denounced the arrest as a conspiracy on the part of the woman and the police, and said it was a question of veracity between the witnesses for the prosecution and those he would call. In support of these contentions he placed a number of witnesses upon the stand to testify to the good character of his clients, and then Becker was called and made a general denial of the charge made against himself.

That was the status of the case when the trial was resumed this morning before a full court-room.

It was 11:45 o'clock when Becker and Finn were called to the bar. Becker was well-dressed and thoughtful, as usual, while Finn smiled and showed no anxiety whatever.

First came a general denial.

Assistant Superintendent Stocking was the first witness, but his testimony was uninteresting. He was followed by Finn, who said he was twenty-seven years old and was born in Austria. He is single and lives with his mother at 105 East High street.

Finn said he had been connected with the society eight years. He was suspended when arrested on the present charge, and his suspension was followed June 1 by dismissal.

The arrest of Mrs. Sophie Martens and the inmates of her house by himself, Becker and Finn, was retold, and he said Mrs. Martens told him she would make him a nice present if he would get her off light, and further that he could come and see her every month. Then he denied emphatically that he had ever called upon her to arrange for the payment of any money.

Within a year, he said, he had been threatened with violence, and that was the reason he ran when the revolver was pointed at him the night of the arrest.

The morning of April 28 he received a letter from Mrs. Martens, asking him to meet her that night, and he expressed his disappointment that he had not met her the night before. He testified that he was not present to meet her, but it was simply to get rid of her.

She had annoyed him in the police court by soliciting him to press the case against her, and told him that when Cassidy (the Police Captain) was in the precinct, she always got along well, but when McCauley came he raised the devil. She said to pay McCauley $500 to prevent being raised, she said, and then had to pay him $500 a month.

CREAMER AND WHITE ARE BACK

Both prisoners were taken to Police Headquarters.

All Reappointed by the Board at This Morning's Session.

Mayor Grant, Comptroller Myers and President J. H. V. Arnold, of the Board of Aldermen, ex-officio members of the Board of Brooklyn Bridge Trustees, who are authorized by law to appoint the New York members on the board, met this morning and reappointed all the present incumbents. They are:

Edward V. Skinner, J. G. K. Lawrence, Abraham Schwab, Samuel C. Stanton, George H. Hubbard, John W. Brown, Clarence H. Bourgeois, Alfred Wagstaff.

A special meeting of the Bridge Trustees will be held next Monday.

New York will try to capture its Presidency here, but Brooklyn wants it, too, and will not be caught napping this time. New York took the prize last year by strategy.

NO NEWS TO MR. GALLUP.

He Had Long Ago Advised the Dismissal of Central Park Attaches.

Park Commissioner Gallup, speaking of the recommendations and criticisms of the Park Board in the report on Central Park management, said this morning:

"As long ago as 1890 I recommended the dismissal of Property Clerk and Paymaster Van Valkenburg, but he had votes enough in the board to secure his retention."

"As to Superintendent, as long as a year and a half ago I was impressed with the fact that his lack of practical knowledge of business details, evidenced in several serious blunders, rendered him for the work he was doing. He agreed with me to transfer to the work of landscape gardening, but subsequently he changed his mind, and he is still superintendent."

The special report of April 12 recommending the dismissal of Landscape Gardener Van Valkenburg, and the dismissal of Superintendent, has made no report yet. Mr. Dana was not at his office today.

WANT WOMEN ON THE BOARD.

Mayor Boody Asked to Name Ten as Educational Commissioners.

Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, pastor of Plymouth Church; Rev. J. Coleman Adams, Mrs. Emma E. Pettigrew, Mrs. W. D. Munson and Mrs. Thomas A. Backus called upon Mayor Boody at the city hall this morning to urge his consideration of their proposal to appoint women as members of the Brooklyn Board of Education.

Mrs. Backus suggested the appointment of women.

Mayor Boody said that if there was any reason to make a change, now would be the time. He had considered the matter, but would go no further, and also consulted with principals and teachers.

The terms of fifteen members of the Board of Education will expire July 1.

Clark Albert Hietrick, of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, called the name of Matthew P. Daley in that court this morning, and in response Frederick B. House replied that Daley was a member of the police force and was on duty at the house of detention. He asked that Daley's pleading to the indictment, charging him with assault on sixteen-year-old Mamie Hannan be postponed till this afternoon, in order to give his counsel time to notify him. The request was granted by Justice Ingraham.

Daley is charged by Mamie Hannan with having criminally assaulted her in the saloon of Joseph Gellor, at 11st and Broome streets, on the night of March 20.

On May 23 Daley's case was brought to light by a complaint made by Mamie Hannan's father that Roundsman Daley had forced his way into her house and brutally assaulted her because she had threatened to make trouble for him on account of his alleged outrageous assault on Mamie, and that he had then arrested her.

The Grand Jury yesterday found two indictments against Daley. One charges him with criminal assault, for which on conviction he might be sent to prison for twenty years. The other indictment is for assault in the third degree upon Mrs. Hannan.

Since these charges were first brought Daley has been transferred, first to a precinct in the Ansonia district, and later to duty in the House of Detention, the Police Commissioners, considering that it would be improper for them to prejudice his case by removing or suspending him pending his indictment and trial for the alleged crime.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon Roundsman Daley appeared in court. He was in citizen's dress and gave no sign of nervousness.

In his behalf Knaus, a friend entered a plea of not guilty to each indictment, with the privilege of withdrawing it to deny the charges.

A week was allowed for this purpose, and bail was fixed on the indictment for assault in third degree at $500. John Early, of Elizabeth street, is Daley's bondsman in $2,500 in the criminal assault case.

The girl went into Benvenuto's shop and saw him shaving her little brother's neck, and she interfered.
